

1- What do we need? The learning process.

- 1.1- How do we learn?
- 1.2- Vivat Academia, Vivant Professores!
  - 1.2.1- Good professors are always compulsory.
  - 1.2.2- Kinds of learning tools.

2- Learning history.

- 2.1- How do we teach?
- 2.2- New social demands: continuous and executive education.
- 2.3- Approaching professional students.

3- Distance Learning and its contribution to the learning system.

- 3.1- Distance learning: another approach.
- 3.2- Technology enhanced learning.

4- eLearning.

- 4.1- Virtual teaching: a big revolution but still in the beginning.
- 4.2- Internet: another teaching channel.
- 4.3- Elearning characteristics.
  - 4.3.1- Advantages
  - 4.3.2- Disadvantages
- 4.4- Nintendo Generation.

5- ELearning tools and methods.

- 5.1- ELearning tools.
  - 5.1.1- Communication tools.
  - 5.1.2- Content tools.
  - 5.1.3- URLs.
  - 5.1.4- Evaluation tools.
  - 5.1.5- Study tools.
- 5.2- ELearning versions.
- 5.3- Learn by doing.
- 5.4- Learn by teaching.

5.5- Blended Learning. Physical (not only virtual) lectures are always compulsory.

5.6- Multisided learning: attending at classes and communicating via web.

6- ELearning landscape.

6.1- Letter from US.

6.2- Letter from Europe.

6.3- ELearning failures and lies. Traditional education is basic!